FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Beaudiene Christian

Van Washing Man

Move Over

Beaudiene Christian could not hold out star 3yo Russley Rascal last Saturday when shooting for three-on-end. In that horses' absence he should regain the winning feeling. Give Van Washing Man another chance after failing in the same race. And Move Over has little luck in that race and should go better here. Mick Ison and Eastwood Cullen are racing well.

Race Two

Joshua Mac

Te Kinga Boy

Charlie Wright

Joshua Mac had the race won early doors on Saturday when he began so swiftly off the stand. A repeat of those early manners and he is clearly the horse to beat again. Te Kinga Boy has disappointed of late but draws perfectly and will step fast. Give him another chance. Charlie Wright was slightly disappointing last week, but keep onside, as well as Dundee Three who is also in great form but gets bad draw. Add 3 & 4 in multiples.

Race Three

Seshny Bromac

Miss Elsie

Sounds Alive

Seshny Bromac was again very brave when third behind Indulge last weekend, keeping her formline intact. Drawn to get handier here and she looks the one to beat. Miss Elsie is a top-quality 2yo filly readying for the Harness Jewels. A shocking draw may cost her victory, though on ability she is clearly the best in the race. Sounds Alive had a problem when pulled up last start. Expect a good run now that's been rectified. In an open race for the minors add in 1,6,7,9,10.

Race Four

Franco Emirate

Arnoux

Glenalvon

Franco Emirate jumps up out of C1 grade to tackle the C2's, though as a four-win pacer this class will make no difference. Super good in an unbeaten run and that is quite likely to be retained, though this his toughest test. Arnoux is the big threat. An easy Timaru win last Sunday and off a great draw he should lead or trail. Glenalvon has trialed well and could show up, too. He's also out of his grade. Add 1,3,10.

Race Five

Stylish Monarch

Springbank Richard

A great field. Stylish Monarch did himself proud in Auckland chasing home Sundon's Gift in the Rowe Cup when last presented. Races well here and is undoubtedly the one to beat. Springbank Richard was unlucky the gaps didn't come sooner in the Rowe Cup. He steamed home when clear. Ready to strike form. King Charlie is flying and could provide the sponsor with victory, while Sno's Big Boy looked a next-upper when bold to the finish last week. Consider Leighton Hest who went super in the Rowe Cup.

Race Six

De Lovely

Secret Potion

Meredith Maguire

De Lovely was never likely to get a crack at them off a terrible draw last week and so it proved. She draws well this time off the markers. Can use high speed to run them down and the distance appears to suit. Secret Potion looks head and shoulders the best stayer in this crop, proving that over shorter journey last week. Can clearly back up and win again. Her stablemates Lancome and Meredith Maguire seem the logical threats.

Race Seven

Kotare Mach

Galatos

Anvils Best Ever

Probably time for Kotare Mach to run the gate and lead. He's been eased off the gate in recent times, but on the eve of the Jewels you'd expect him to be going forward this time. Leads and wins for fun over 1950m on his best night. Galatos will run his usual honest race but place might be best. Anvils Best Ever would have gone close but galloped over shadows on track last week. Give another chance.

Race Eight

Le Sol

The Muskeg Express

Major Mark

Le Sol eased wide on the track and probably should have won if that hadn't occurred in last Saturday's rich Sales Final. Drawn to get his big bonus this week. The Muskeg Express had that race won before galloping in the shadows of the post last week. A huge threat if he can find an early lead. Thumpem gained a fortuitous though deserved win in the Sales Final. Drawn to give another good account of himself. Major Mark is hard to follow. Brilliant on his day, but ordinary by his standards last week. Far too good to drop. Add 5 & 7.

Race Nine

Harley Earl

Baileys Dream

Bettor's Strike

The final hurrah for the open class pacers this season. Harley Earl could have the jump on his elders, his NZ Messenger placing an outstanding run in fast time. Possibly more on the "up" than others who may be tiring after a long season. Bettor's Strike and Baileys Dream could fit into the category. They took part in a very lame FFA last week and were okay on the day. Must have's here. Consider 1,3,7,10.

Race TenKing Of Strathfield*Double Bundy*Sun Lad

The toughest race of the night. King Of Strathfield has hit his better form again and looks due a win. He will head to the Jewels after this. Double Bundy can be forgiven the last start failure, go on the previous two wins, both very impressive. Sun Lad ran a great race fresh last week and can go one better this time. Wide range of threats with 1,2,9,10,17.

Race ElevenMabrook*Zenola Seelster*Corzin Terror

Mabrook had it won but for the last hop on this track last Saturday, a tidy performance backing up some nice trial form. Drawn to jump out and possibly lead again. Looks the one. Zenola Seelster was adequate in a workout here a couple of weeks ago but handy enough. Sure to go well out of in-form stable. Corzin Terror shows good ability at trials, have him in. Others aren't out of it.

SATURDAY HARNESS

Invercargill HRC @ Ascot Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Cruising By

Zico

Gentle Georgia

Tip of the week: Kelly Evander won't win. We'll go for Cruising By as the best bet. He has met much stronger fields of late and should appreciate dropping back to this field of duffers. Big chance. Zico shows good speed around Forbury and may prefer this track. A good chance. Gentle Georgia unwound strongly last time when placed. Can improve further. Add 2,3,7.

Race Two

Donthavtime

Body Line

Relentless Storm

Donthavtime drops from 3yo fillies company to adequate maidens. She will win this if she can find the form that saw her place in a Southland Oaks heat. Body Line ran on strongly last time and promises a win before seasons end. Relentless Storm was sound when placed last time and should improve further. Consider 2,3,10,11 in multiple selections.

Race Three

Flash Of Fire

Smile With Me

Churchill Bromac

Flash Of Fire has impressed off the trials tapes in Southland and looks set to quit maidens quickly. Any reproduction of the trial form and he goes close first time out. Smile With Me has been consistent for many weeks and though unable to win she has probably raced in stronger company. Deserves reward. Churchill Bromac is learning but getting better. Drawn well. Lite Bourbon and Good Togo Washington could upset.

Race Four

Akaroa Charlie

Run Courage Run

Ringwraith

A game run from Akaroa Charlie after missing away at the start at Forbury off the stand. Reverts to mobile and does draw well. Run Courage Run ran greenly and a little too keenly fresh up. Has the motor so stick with him. Ringwraith is due a win after good placings off a spell, while Habana is a talented maiden resuming who should win without fuss during the winter. Consider 2,3,11,16. Henry Duckett trialed well.

Race Five

Domino Bromac

Verasprideandglory

Iron Lady

Courage Under Fire gelding Domino Bromac has trialed well in recent weeks for Kirk Larsen, showing a bit of determination. Not a nice draw on debut, but he's better than most in this. Verasprideandglory has been hit or miss to date though very talented when switched on. Could lead and win if she's in the mood. Iron Lady was better in most recent race and also a trial win. Ready to strike form. Consider 1,3,16.

Race Six

Aleana

Suncrusher

Earl's Son

Aleana has grown a leg in recent weeks and has trotted beautifully in bagging two wins and a placing. Same deal and she'll keep these busy, too. Suncrusher rushed home smartly last week showing his ability. Best in the race if caught in the mood. Earl's Son hasn't been quite so sharp since winning three back but cannot be overlooked. Lady Margot and El Alamein to upset.

Race Seven

Joshua Mac

Guns N Roses

Franco Nick Nack

Joshua Mac should win if he tackles this as opposed to the premier night at Addington. Big win last week. Hard to catch off a good draw here. Guns N Roses is a very talented pacer. He can overcome a second row draw and beat these. Will be well supported. Franco Nick Nack is no mug and much better than last two suggest. Draw could aid his chances. Finbar Abbey and Pacific Soul for longer odds.

Race Eight

Rongahere

Drivin A Ferrari

Artoc

Rongahere went a beauty in top company at Addington last Saturday. Always a horse that has shown above-average ability, he looks well-placed to score this time. Drivin A Ferrari resumes after being freshened. Set the world on fire early doors winning four of first five starts. Sneaky chance. Artoc is a good horse resuming. May need this one but can't be overlooked. Add 1,3,9,11.

Race Nine

Western Arden

Ask McArdle

Georgia Jazz

Western Arden drops back from Southland Oaks to a very winnable fillies and mares event. Her form of late was showing signs of her best. Should beat these, though her stablemate Ask McArdle is possibly the better, though drawn the back row over 1700m. Stable holds the key the race, no doubt. Jolly Good Union, Paris H, Georgia Jazz, and Donna's X Factor to threaten.

Race Ten

Montecrengle

Turbine

Shark Ark

Montecrengle and Turbine are two lovely three-year-olds possibly set to fight this out, though another pair of three-year-olds, El Nino and Shard Ark, will have something to say about that. Working all bets around that four will be the way to play this race. Of the remainder 1,5,16 may place. Going Montecrengle just in front of Turbine.
